

DIVE IN DEEP

Resources, answer key, and more at www.knoxcountylibrary.org/readcity

*Some sea creatures may be found in more than one ocean zone.

SUNLIGHT ZONE

EPIPELAGIC ZONE | SURFACE-200 METERS

Barracuda

Clown fish

Green sea turtle

Jellyfish

Sea cucumber

Dolphin

TWILIGHT ZONE

MESPELAGIC ZONE | 200-1,000 METERS

Vampire squid

Giant squid

Sperm whale

MIDNIGHT ZONE

BATHYPELAGIC ZONE | 1,000-4,000 METERS

Greenland shark

Pelican eel

Giant tube worms

Brittle sea star

ABYSS

ABYSSOPELAGIC ZONE | 4,000-6,000 METERS

Angler fish

TRENCHES

HADALPELAGIC ZONE | 6,000-10,994 METERS

Bivalves

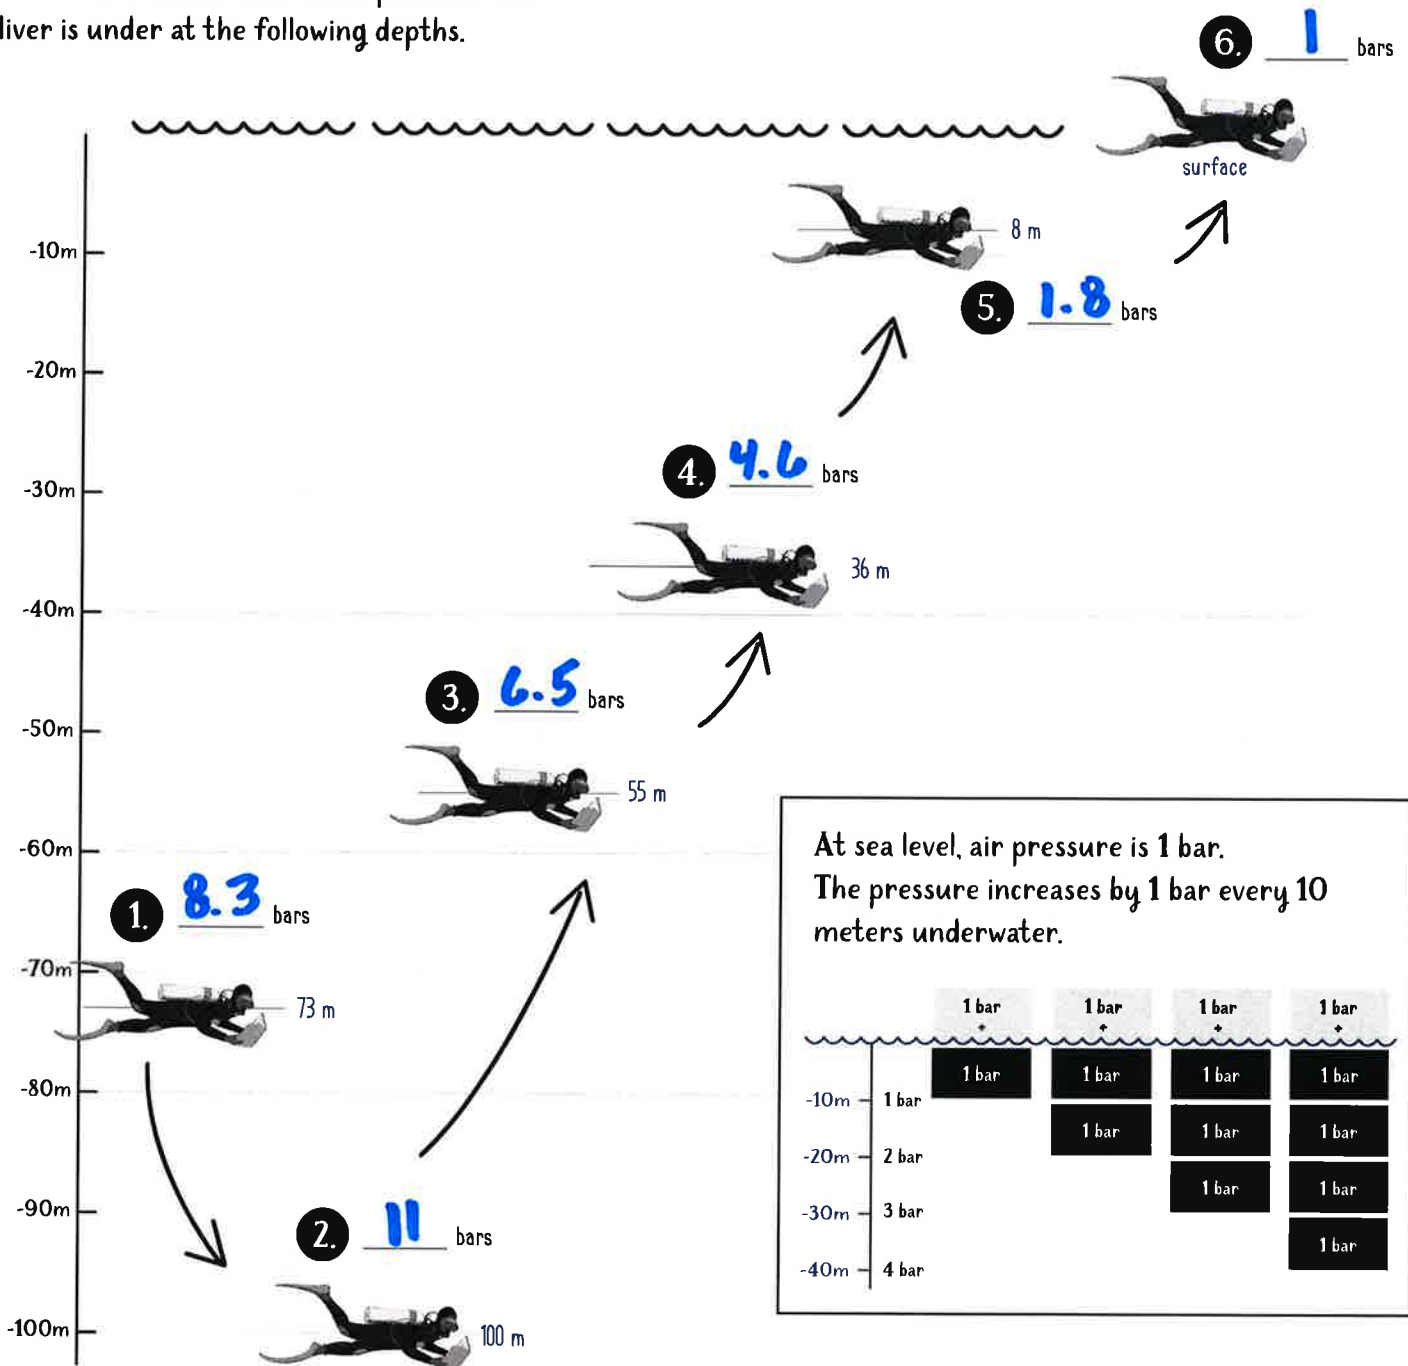

DIVE IN DEEP

Resources, answer key, and more at www.knoxcountylibrary.org/readcity

SCUBA RESCUE

Help! Our scuba diver needs help getting back to the surface. Use the chart at the bottom to calculate how much pressure the diver is under at the following depths.

Don't forget that air pressure at sea level is 1 bar!

DIVE IN DEEP

Resources, answer key, and more at www.knoxcountylibrary.org/readcity

SHIPSHAPE

Get your mind into shipshape by solving these wordplexers: word puzzles that describe a word or phrase, not only by spelling letters, but also by how the word looks.

1 Star fish

2 tidal wave

TIDAL

FELL
BOARD

DENT
DENT
DENT

3 Fell over board

4 trident

5 Bermuda triangle